AGREED ENTRY

Come now the Plaintiff, State of Indiana, by Attorney General Steve Carter and Deputy Attorneys General Justin G. Hazlett and David A. Paetzmann, and the Defendant, Access Resource Services, Inc., and submit the following agreed entry on Plaintiff's Motion For Preliminary Injunction:

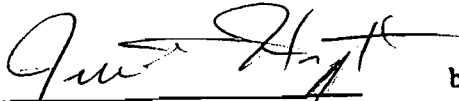

1. Defendant acknowledges that it has voluntarily suspended all broadcast, direct mail, and internet advertising for its 900-number services, and that the Defendant will provide at least five (5) days prior notice to Plaintiff's counsel of its intent to commence advertising at a future date. Defendant will simultaneously inform Plaintiff's counsel of any and all conditions placed on said advertising as a result of any administrative order, court order, or agreement with the Federal Trade Commission or any other governmental entity. Plaintiff understands that residual print advertising, submitted for publication prior to the filing of Plaintiff's complaint, may appear in various publications subsequent to the date of this Agreed Entry.

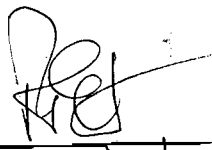

2. Defendant will continue to fully cooperate and assist the Plaintiff in its investigation of all complaints filed by consumers with the Indiana Attorney General's Office against Defendant, including investigation of acts and representations related to provision of Defendant's psychic entertainment readings, including but not limited to those acts and representations referenced in paragraph 24 of Plaintiff's complaint, when such acts and representations are alleged contravene Indiana law or Defendant's established policies and/or procedures. Defendant's cooperation will include, but not be limited to, the following:

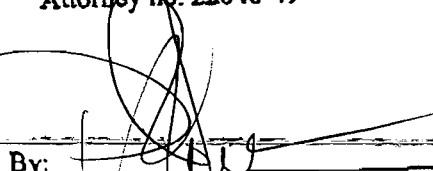

- a. Defendant agrees to provide Plaintiff with documents and other material containing its policies and procedures related to provision of services by psychic entertainment readers on its behalf, as well as documents and other material related to such policies and procedures;
- b. Defendant agrees that Plaintiff may continue to conduct telephone calls to psychic entertainment readers operating on behalf of Defendant, and that persons calling on behalf of Plaintiff need not reveal their true identities or the fact that they are calling on behalf of Plaintiff to the psychic entertainment readers Plaintiff chooses to call. Within fourteen (14) days following court approval of this Agreed Entry, Defendant shall provide Plaintiff with a listing of then current 800 and 900 numbers that consumers may call to obtain 900-number psychic entertainment readings.
